(2) When information subject to a subpoena is withheld on a claim that it is privileged or subject to protection as trial preparation material, the claim shall be made expressly and shall be supported by a detailed description of the nature of the documents, or things not produced that is sufficient to enable the demanding party to determine the claim.

Parties, or party to incur substantial expense to travel more than 100 miles to attend trial, the court may, to protect a person subpoenaed to or affected by the subpoena, quash or modify the subpoena, or, if the party in whose behalf the subpoena is issued shows a substantial need for the testimony or material that cannot be otherwise met without undue hardship and assures that the person to whom the subpoena is addressed will be reasonably compensated, the court may order appearance of the person to whom the subpoena is issued upon specific conditions.

(b) (1) a subpoena

(i) requires disclosure of a trade secret or other confidential information, development, or commercial information, or

(ii) requires disclosure of an unrefined expert's opinion or information not describing specific events or occurrences in dispute and resulting from the expert's study made not at the request of any and
